9. other documents and information, as laid down in an ordinance.

(3) In the cases where an investment intermediary wishes to perform services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 and 3, which are not covered by its license, then it must file an application with the Commission for extension of the scope of the license, to which shall be attached the documents under para 2, item 1, 2, 3 and 5, as well as other documents and information, laid down in an ordinance.

(4) In cases where a market operator wishes to be licensed to organize a Multilateral Trading Facility and the persons who manage the activity of the Multilateral Trading Facility are one and same with the persons who manage the activity of the regulated market, it shall be considered that these persons meet the requirements of Art. 11 para 2 and 3.

(5) The Commission shall issue a license to a market operator for the organization of a Multilateral Trading Facility, if it satisfies the relevant requirements of this Chapter, save for Art. 14 para 4 item 1 and Art. 16 para 1 item 7.

Art.14. (1) The Commission shall decide on the application within three months of its receipt, and where additional information and documents have been requested – within one month of their receipt.

(2) On the basis of the submitted documents the Commission shall find whether the requirements for the issue of the requested license, or for extension of the scope of the issued license have been met. If the presented data and documents are incomplete, incorrect, or non-complied with the statutory requirements or some additional information is required or evidence for their correctness, the Commission shall send a notice about the established deficiencies and inconsistencies or about the required additional information and documents.

(3) In the cases of Art. 111 para 1 and 2, the Commission shall require the opinion of the relevant competent authority, and the term under para 1 shall start running from the date of receiving the required opinion. The Commission shall pronounce not later than 6 months after the receiving of the application and the demanded under para 2 additional data and documents.

(4) The period under para 1 and 3 shall be considered complied with if within the relevant period the Commission notifies the applicant in writing that it will issue a license to pursue the business of an investment intermediary, or will extend the scope of the issued license, if within a 14-day period after the receipt of the notification, the applicant verifies that:

1. the entrance contribution to the Investor Compensation Fund was paid;
2. the required capital under Art. 8 was paid in full.

Art. 15. (1) The Commission shall grant a license for the provision of investment services and performance of investment activities by way of regular occupation, respectively for extension of the scope of the issued license, only in case it decides that the applicant meets the requirements of this Act or its implementing instruments.

(2) The Commission may not issue a license, or refuse extension of the scope of the issued license, for a part of the applied for services and activities under Art. 5 para 2, for which it shall decide that the applicant does not satisfy the requirements of this law or its implementing instruments.

(3) The license under para 1 shall specify exhaustively the investment services and activities, which the entity is entitled to perform. The license may include the right to perform one or more services under Art. 5 para 3. The license cannot be granted only for the provision of the services under Art. 5 para 3.

(4) The license under para 1 shall entitle to perform the indicated in it services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 and 3 within the European Union and the European Economic Area by the establishment of a branch or under the freedom to provide services, unless the Commission has explicitly approved their performance in third countries.

(5) The Commission may issue a license to perform the services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 and 3 on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria through a branch of a legal entity from a third country, provided that:

1. the person has the right under his national legislation to perform such services and activities, or
2. the authority, supervising the market of financial instruments in the state where the person is registered, exercises supervision over it on a consolidated basis.

(6) Where so envisaged in an international treaty to which the Republic of Bulgaria is a party, the Commission may recognize the authorization for performance of services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 and 3, issued by a legal entity from a third country.

(7) The person from a third country shall have the rights and obligations of an investment intermediary for which the Republic of Bulgaria is a home Member State, unless envisaged otherwise by law.

Art. 16. (1) The Commission shall refuse to issue a license, or the extension of the scope of the issued license, if:

1. the capital of the applicant does not satisfy the requirements of Art. 8;
2. some of the members of the management or supervisory body of the company or the persons under Art. 11 para 2, 4 and 5 does not satisfy the requirements of this Law, through his activities or influence on the decision making, may jeopardize the safety of the company or its operations;

4. the general conditions under Art. 13 para 2 item 5 do not guarantee to a sufficient extent the interests of investors;
5. the applicant has submitted false particulars or documents with incorrect content;

6. the persons who have directly or indirectly qualifying holding in the applicant company have made contributions with loan funds;

7. the entry contribution in the Fund for Compensation of Investors in Securities is not paid;

8. due to relatedness between the applicant and other persons, substantial difficulties may arise for the efficient exercising of supervision by the Commission;

9. the statutory acts applicable in a third country, regulating the operation of related to the applicant person, or difficulties with their application shall create obstacles for the efficient exercising of the supervisory functions of the Commission, or of the deputy chairman;

10. it is evident from the content of the programme of operations or from other documents of the applicant, that the main part of the activities will be carried out on the territory of another Member State, and the application to obtain a license from the Commission is with the purpose of avoiding the more stringent requirements to the investment intermediaries in the Member State on whose territory the applicant intends to pursue business.

11. the applicant fails to satisfy the other requirements laid down in the Act and its implementing instruments.

(2) In the cases under para 1, item 1, 2, 4, 6 and 11 the Commission will refuse the issue of a license only if the applicant has failed to eliminate the inconsistencies and to submit the required documents within the term set by the Commission which may not be less than one month.

(3) Beside in the cases under para 1, the Commission may refuse the issue of a license to an investment intermediary from a third country to perform services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 and 3 on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria through a branch, if it decides that the exercised over such investment intermediary supervision on a consolidated basis by the relevant competent authority in its home member-state does not satisfy the requirements, laid down in this Act or its implementing instruments.

(4) The refusal of the Commission to issue a license shall be reasoned in writing.

Art. 17. In case of a refusal the applicant may file a new application to obtain license to perform the services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 and 3 at least six months after the refusal has come into effect.

Art. 18. (1) A person who does not possess an authorization to carry on services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 and 3 in conformity with the requirements of this Act may not use in his business name, advertising or any other activities words in Bulgarian or foreign language denoting the carrying on of services and activities in relation to financial instruments.

(2) No license shall be issued to pursue the business of investment intermediary to an applicant with a business name, which resembles the business name of existing in the country investment intermediary.

Art. 19. The Entry Registry shall enter the company in the commercial register, or the right to pursue the services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 and 3 in its subject of activities, after it is provided with the issued by the Commission license.

Art. 20. (1) The Commission shall withdraw the license issued where the investment intermediary:

1. fails to commence carrying on the authorized services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 within 12 months as from the issuing of the license or has explicitly renounced the license issued;
2. has submitted false particulars which have served as a ground to issue the license or has used other illegal means to obtain a license;
3. ceases to satisfy the conditions under which the license has been issued;
4. and/or persons under Art. 11 have violated and/or have admitted the perpetration of violation under Art. 35 para 1, under Art. 8-11 of the Law on Measures Against Market Abuse with Financial Instruments or some other gross violation of this Act, the Law on Public

Offering of Securities, Law on Measures Against Market Abuse with Financial Instruments, the Special Purpose Vehicles Act or their implementing instruments;

5. did not fulfill the imposed coercive measure under this Act or in the cases under Art. 77n para 1 of the Law on Public Offering of Securities.

(2) The Commission may withdraw the license issued where:

1. the investment intermediary has not performed the authorized services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 for more than 6 months;

2. the investment intermediary fails to satisfy the requirements to capital adequacy and liquidity of this Act and its implementing instruments, and does not submit within a 5-day period from occurrence of the inconsistency, a restructuring program for compliance with these requirements, or the restructuring program is not approved by the Commission within 14 days from its submission, or it does not implement the restructuring program approved by the Commission;

3. the investment intermediary is in lasting worsened financial situation and it cannot perform its duties;

4. the investment intermediary and/or persons under Art. 11 have committed and/or have allowed the commitment of systematic offences of this Act, the Law on Public Offering of Securities, Law on Measures Against Market Abuse with Financial Instruments, the Special Purpose Vehicles Act or their implementing instruments;

5. if from the activities carried out by the intermediary it is evident that the main part of the business is pursued on the territory of another Member State, and a license has been obtained from the Commission with the purpose of avoiding the more stringent requirements to the investment intermediaries in the other Member State.

(3) The Commission shall inform the company in writing within 7 days after a decision is made to withdraw the license.

(4) After the decision to withdraw the license comes into effect, the Commission shall immediately file a demand with the respective district court in order to institute liquidation proceedings for the company, and where the latter has other business activities as well – to strike off the relevant part of its activities, or for the initiation of bankruptcy proceedings and shall take the measures necessary to inform the public.

Art. 21. (1) The investment intermediary must, within 7 days after the decision of the general meeting for its winding up, or for giving up activity, upon expiration of the term for which it has been incorporated, as well as on the emergence of another reason for winding up that has been provided for in the intermediary's charter, ask the Commission to withdraw the license issued.

(2) Together with the request under para 1 the investment intermediary shall present a plan for settlement of its relations with clients. The plan shall include transfer of the clients' financial instruments, funds and other assets to an investment intermediary chosen by the clients, which has given consent for that.

(3) Where the requirements under para 2, sentence two is not fulfilled, the plan must provide for transferring the clients' financial instruments, funds and other assets to a depository institution, including through the opening of new accounts of the individual clients.

(4) The costs for carrying out the plan for settlement of relationships with clients shall be covered by the investment intermediary.

(5) The Commission shall withdraw the license of the investment intermediary after it has settled the relationships with its clients.

(6) The District Court shall initiate proceedings for the liquidation, respectively shall delete from the company's subject of activity the performance of the services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 and 3 after the withdrawal of the license to pursue business as investment intermediary and the receiving of the demand under Art. 20 para 4.

Art. 22. (1) In cases other than that of Art.21 para 1, within three working days after coming to the knowledge of the decision-taking for the license withdrawal, the investment intermediary shall notify its clients about this decision and about the option to choose another investment intermediary where they could transfer their financial instruments, funds and other assets.

(2) Within five working days after the expiration of the term under para 1, the investment intermediary shall transfer the client's financial instruments, funds and other assets under the terms of Art. 21 para 2, sentence two, para 3 and 4.

(3) When taking the decision for withdrawal of the license, the Commission may obligate the investment intermediary to perform the activities under para 2 in a shorter term. The deputy chairman may obligate the investment intermediary under the terms of Art. 118 – 121 to take further specific measures to protect the interests of its clients.

(4) The investment intermediary shall notify of its activities under para 2 and para 3:

1. its clients – within three working days after performing them;
2. the Commission – within three working days after the expiration of the term under para 2 or the expiration of the term given by the decision under para 3.

(1) Transferable securities that have been admitted to trading on a regulated market can subsequently be admitted to trading on other regulated markets, even without the consent of the issuer, if the provisions of Directive 2003/71/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council have been complied with.

(2) In the cases under para 1, the market operator of the regulated market on which subsequent admission to trading has been done, shall inform the issuer of the admission of the securities to trading on that regulated market. The issuer may not be obligated to provide the information under Art. 88 para 2 to the regulated market directly or indirectly.

Art. 90. (1) A regulated market may organize an official and/or unofficial securities market.

(2) If the admission of securities to an official market is preceded by an initial public offering under Art. 5 para 1 item 1 of the Law on Public Offering of Securities (LPOS), the admission to trading may be done after the deadline of the subscription.

(3) The general requirements to the securities as well as to the manner and procedure for admission of securities to trading on an official market shall be laid down in an ordinance.

Division III

Suspension of Trading With Financial Instruments and Removal of Financial Instruments from Trading on a Regulated Market

Art. 91. (1) The market operator may suspend the trading with financial instruments or remove from trading financial instruments which no longer comply with the requirements established in the Rules for the operation of the regulated market, unless that would be likely to cause significant damage to the investors' interests and the orderly functioning of the market.

(2) The market operator shall make public its decision for suspension of the trading with financial instruments or for removal from trading of financial instruments and shall notify the Commission of it. The Commission shall provide the information under sentence one to the competent authorities of the other Member States.

(3) The market operator may inform of its decision under para 2 directly the market operators of the other regulated markets on which the relevant financial instruments have been admitted to trading.

Art. 92. (1) In the cases when the Commission demands the suspension of trading with financial instruments or removal of financial instruments from trading on one or more regulated markets according Art. 118 para 1 item 4 and 9, it shall immediately make public its decision and shall inform the competent authorities of the other Member States.

(2) In the cases where the Commission receives information from a competent authority of another Member State for suspension of the trade with financial instruments or removal of financial instruments from trading on one or more regulated markets, it shall demand suspension of the trade or removal of those financial instruments from trading on the regulated markets or a multilateral trading facility (MTF), that operate on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria, unless this could seriously prejudice the investor interests and the market's orderly functioning.

Division IV

Access to a Regulated Market

Art. 93. (1) A regulated market shall apply transparent and non-discriminatory rules, based on objective criteria, settling access to or membership of the regulated market. The rules shall be part of the Rules under Art. 79.

(2) The rules under para 1 shall set forth the obligations for the members and the participants of the regulated market in relation to:

1. the constitution and administration of the regulated market;

2. rules relating to transactions, executed on the regulated market;
3. professional standards which have to be covered by the staff of the investment intermediaries or credit institutions that are operating on the regulated market;
4. the conditions which must be met by members or participants on the regulated market other than investment intermediaries and credit institutions under para 3;
5. the rules and procedures for the clearing and settlement of transactions concluded on the regulated market.

(3) A regulated market may admit for participation in the trade or accept as members investment intermediaries, credit institutions as well as other persons meeting the following requirements:

2. to have the required trading ability and competence;
3. to have adequate organisational arrangements according the business they pursue;
4. to have sufficient resources for the functions they are to perform in relation to the regulated market's operation, taking into account the different financial arrangements that the regulated market envisages to conclude or may have concluded in order to guarantee the adequate settlement of transactions.

Art. 94. (1) Members and participants on a regulated market are not obliged to comply with the requirements laid down in Art. 24 para 4, 7 and 8; Art. 27 para 2, 4 and 5; Art. 28, 30 and Art. 33 para 2 in the execution of transactions on the regulated market between themselves. The members and participants of the regulated market shall comply with the obligations according sentence one first in the relations with their clients when they, acting on behalf of clients, execute their orders on a regulated market.

(2) Investment intermediaries and credit institutions shall be direct or remote participants or members of the regulated market on conditions set forth in the rules under Art. 93 para 1.

(3) The market operator shall provide the Commission with information about the members or participants of the regulated market and shall notify it of any change in that information.

Division V

Provision of Access of Local Persons to the Systems of a Regulated Market Which Has Obtained an Authorization to Pursue Business in Another Member State.

Provision of Access of Persons from Another Member State to the Systems of a Regulated Market Which Has Obtained a License in the Republic of Bulgaria

Art. 95. (1) A regulated market, which has been authorized to pursue business by a competent authority of another Member State, may conclude agreements on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria to facilitate the access to its trading systems and the carrying out of trade on that market by local persons as remote members or participants on that regulated market after receiving a notification by the competent authority of the Member State.

(2) In connection with the exercising of its supervisory functions the Commission may ask the competent authority from a Member State under para 1 to supply information on the members or the participants in the regulated market under para 1, established in the Republic of Bulgaria.

Art. 96. (1) A regulated market that has obtained a license to pursue business in the Republic of Bulgaria may conclude agreements on the territory of another Member State in order to facilitate the access to its trading systems and carrying out of trade on that market by persons from another Member State as remote members or participants on that regulated market, after notifying of it the Commission. The notification shall indicate the state on whose territory the regulated market intends to conclude agreements for facilitated access, and information on the types of agreements.

(2) The Commission shall provide to the competent authority under para 1 the information, that the notification contains within 1 month from its receipt. The Commission shall notify forthwith the regulated market of the provision of the information.

(3) Within the term under para 2 the Commission may refuse to provide the information that the notification contains to the relevant competent authority under para 1 with a reasoned decision, if the envisaged by the regulated market agreements do not ensure to sufficient extent a free access to its trading systems, or the interests of the participants in the trade on the regulated market have not been otherwise ensured.

(4) On request of the competent authority from the other Member State, the Commission shall provide to it information about the members or the participants in the regulated market established in that Member State.

Division VI

Monitoring of Compliance With the Provisions of the Law and With the Rules of the Regulated Market

Art. 97. (1) A regulated market shall apply effective arrangements and procedures for continuous monitoring of compliance with the established by it rules by the members or participants on the regulated market. The rules and procedures shall be a part of the Rules under Art. 79.

(2) The regulated markets shall exercise control over the transactions executed by the participants or by the members through its trading systems, in order to identify breaches of the statutory requirements and of the regulated market's rules, disorderly trading or conduct that may involve market abuse.

(3) The market operator shall report to the Commission significant breaches of the regulated market's rules, disorderly trading or conduct that may involve market abuse. The regulated market shall render full assistance to the Commission and the deputy chairman in the exercising of their supervisory functions in relation to the market abuses with financial instruments.

Division VII

Disclosure of Market Information by the Regulated Market

Art. 98. (1) In the normal trading hours the regulated markets shall make public on a continuous basis and on reasonable commercial terms information on current bid and offer prices which are advertised through their systems for shares admitted to trading, as well as the orders given at those prices.

(2) Regulated markets may, on reasonable commercial conditions, give access to the arrangements they employ for making public the information under para 1 to investment intermediaries which are obliged to publish their quotes in shares pursuant to Art. 44.

(3) The deputy chairman may waive the obligation for regulated markets to make public the information referred to in para 1 based on the market model, the type and size of orders in the cases defined in accordance with paragraph 5, including when such information relates to transactions that are large in scale compared with the normal market size for the relevant issue of shares or type of share.

(4) The regulated market, on regular basis and on request, shall provide the Ministry of Finance and the Bulgarian National Bank with information about the transactions with government securities, executed on the regulated market.

(5) Commission Regulation (EC) No. 1287/2006 defines:

1. the range of bids and offers or designate market-makers quotes, and the orders given at those prices, to be made public according para 1;

2. the size and type of orders for which para 3 applies;

3. the market model for which waiver of a pre-trade disclosure under paragraph 3 may be requested;

4. the applicability of the obligation under para 1 to trading methods operated by regulated markets which conclude transactions under the adopted according them rules, by reference to prices established outside the regulated market or by periodic auction.

Art. 99. (1) The regulated market shall make public on a reasonable commercial basis and as close to real-time as possible the price, volume and time of the transactions executed in respect of shares admitted to trading.

(2) Regulated markets may give equal access to the intermediaries which are obliged to publish the information under Art. 53, on reasonable commercial terms, to the arrangements they employ for making public the information under para 1.

(3) The deputy chairman may authorize the regulated market to provide for deferred publication of the details under para 1 of transactions that are large in scale compared with the normal market size for that issue of shares or that class of shares, as well as in other cases with a view to the type and volume of the concluded transactions.

(4) The conditions on which a regulated market envisages deferred publication of the information under para 3 and any changes therein shall be approved by the deputy chairman and shall be published on the web site of the regulated market or shall be disclosed to the market participants and investors in another appropriate way.

(5) Commission Regulation (EC) No. 1287/2006 defines:

1. the scope and content of the information to be made available to the public under para 1;

2. the conditions on which a regulated market may provide for deferred publication of the information on the transactions, and the criteria which must apply in determining the transactions for which due to the size or type of shares, deferred publication of information is admissible.

Division VIII

Central Counterparty and Clearing and Settlement Arrangements

Art. 100. (1) A regulated market shall apply a clearing system, including through a central counterparty or clearing houses, also for the settlement of the concluded transactions with financial instruments, which is to ensure their effective and timely finalisation.

(2) The regulated markets shall offer their participants and members the right to designate the system for the settlement of transactions in financial instruments, entered into on that regulated market, subject to:

1. such links and arrangements have been ensured between the designated settlement system and any other settlement system or facility as are necessary to ensure the efficient and economic settlement of the transactions;

2. the deputy chairman has issued an approval for the settlement of the transactions in financial instruments, concluded on a regulated market to be carried out through a settlement system other than that applied by the regulated market.

(3) For the issue of a decision under para 2 item 2 the deputy chairman shall take into account the supervision which is exercised over the participants in the settlement system. The power of the Commission for issuance of the authorization under para 2 item 2 shall not affect the supervisory functions of the central bank or another authority exercising supervision over the settlement system.

(4) The deputy chairman shall refuse to issue an approval under para 2 item 2, if the technical conditions for settlement of the transactions, executed on the regulated market, do not ensure the unimpeded and orderly functioning of the financial markets. Article 85 para 3 – 5 shall apply accordingly.

Art. 101. (1) A regulated market may enter into arrangements with a central counterparty or clearing house and a settlement system in another Member State with a view to providing for the clearing and/or settlement of some or all trades concluded by market participants through its trading system.

(2) For the entering into arrangements under para 1, the preliminary approval of the deputy chairman shall be required. With respect to trading with government securities, issued on the domestic market, the deputy chairman shall issue such approval after the preliminary consent of the Minister of Finance and the Governor of the Bulgarian National Bank.

(3) The deputy chairman shall pronounce on the request for the issue of approval under para 2, taking into account the conditions which must be satisfied by the settlement systems according Art. 100. The deputy chairman may not deny to issue the approval under para 2, unless the conclusion of the arrangements according para 1 may jeopardize the orderly functioning of the regulated market. Article 100 para 4 shall apply accordingly.

(4) In the exercising of its supervisory functions, the deputy chairman shall take into account the oversight of the clearing and settlement system under para 1, exercised by the relevant central bank or by other supervisory authorities of the Member States.

Art. 102. (1) The Commission shall draw up and maintain an up-dated list of the regulated markets for which the Republic of Bulgaria is a home Member State. The Commission shall post the list on its web site and shall provide it to the relevant competent authorities of the other Member States and to the European Commission.

(2) The Commission shall notify the Member States and the European Commission of any change in the list under para 1.

TITLE THREE

INTERACTION WITH THE COMPETENT AUTHORITIES OF A MEMBER STATE

Chapter Six

COOPERATION AND EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION WITH THE COMPETENT AUTHORITIES OF MEMBER STATES

Division I

Cooperation With the Competent Authorities of Member States

Art. 103. (1) In the exercising of its supervisory functions under this law and its implementing instruments, the Commission shall provide information to and cooperate with the relevant competent authorities of other Member States.

(2) For the purposes of para 1, the Commission will use the powers entrusted to it by law also in cases when the action, subject of investigation by the competent authorities of other Member States, does not constitute infringement of the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria.

(3) The Commission shall designate contact points through which requests for the provision of information or for cooperation will be received and shall notify of it the European Commission and the other Member States.

Art. 104. (1) In cases when the operation of a regulated market from a Member State on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria is of substantial importance for the functioning of the securities markets and the protection of investor interests in the Republic of Bulgaria, the Commission and the relevant competent authority from the Member State shall undertake proportionate cooperation arrangements.

(2) The measures under para 1 shall also be taken in cases when the operation on the territory of a Member State of a regulated market, which has been authorized to pursue business in the Republic of Bulgaria, is of substantial importance for the functioning of the securities markets and the protection of investor interests in that Member State.

(3) The cases in which the regulated market under para 1 and 2 is of substantial importance for the functioning of the securities markets and the investor interests protection have been defined by Commission Regulation (EC) No. 1287/2006.

Art. 105. (1) Where the Commission has good reasons to suspect that an entity over whose activities it does not exercise supervisory powers, acts or has acted contrary to the provisions of Directive 2004/39/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on the territory of another Member State, it shall notify of it the competent authority of the relevant Member State.

(2) In the cases when the Commission has been notified by the competent authority of a Member State that an entity over whose operation they do not exercise supervisory powers carries out on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria actions in breach of the provisions of Directive 2004/39/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council, the Commission shall take appropriate actions and inform the relevant competent authority of the Member State of the outcome of such actions.

Art. 106. (1) In carrying out of its supervisory activity, when conducting on-the-spot verifications or an investigation, the Commission may request the cooperation of the competent authority of another Member State.

(2) In the cases under para 1, relating to investment intermediaries that are remote members of a regulated market in the Republic of Bulgaria, the Commission may exercise its powers in regard to them, directly informing of it the competent authority of the home Member State.

(3) Where the Commission receives a request for assistance with respect to an on-the-spot verification or an investigation from a competent authority of another Member State, it within the framework of its powers shall:

(a) carry out the verifications or investigations itself; or

(b) allow the competent authority of the other Member State to carry out the verification or investigation;

(c) allow auditors or experts to carry out the verification or investigation.

Division II

Exchange of Information with the Competent Authorities of Member States

Art. 107. (1) In order to receive the information needed for the realization of the Commission's functions, the contact persons according Art. 103 para 3 shall file a request with the contact persons from the relevant competent authority of a Member State. In case that at the time of supply of the requested information, the contact persons from the relevant Member State have indicated that such information must not be disclosed to third parties without the express consent of the competent authority of the Member State, the Commission may provide the information to third parties solely for the purposes for which the competent authority from the Member State gave its consent.

(2) Upon receiving a request for provision of information, the contact persons according Art. 103 para 3 shall supply to the contact persons from the relevant Member State the information, required for exercising of the supervisory functions of its competent body. At the time of the supply of the information, the contact persons according Art. 103 para 3 may indicate that this information must not be disclosed to third parties without the express consent of the Commission.

(3) The requirements which must be met in filing a request for the receiving of information under para 1 and upon the provision of information under para 2 have been set forth by Commission Regulation No. 1287/2006.

Art. 108. (1) The contact persons under Art. 103 para 3 may provide to the Bulgarian National Bank on conditions and under a procedure, laid down in a joint instruction of the Commission and the Bulgarian National Bank, the information received under Art. 42 and Art. 107 para 1 and the information, received from the relevant competent authority of a third country.

(2) The contact persons under Art. 103 para 3 may not provide the information under para 1 to other bodies or to natural persons and legal entities without the express consent of the competent authorities which disclosed the information and solely for the cases for which they gave consent, except in the cases when duly reasoned circumstances necessitate that, for which the contact persons under Art. 103 para 3 shall immediately inform the contact persons that provided the information.

(3) The Commission, the deputy chairman, the Bulgarian National Bank, as well as other authorities or natural or legal persons who have been provided with information, received under Art. 42 and Art. 107 para 1, and information received from the relevant competent authority of a third country, may use it only in connection with the fulfilment of their functions:

1. when checking for compliance with the requirements for the issue of an authorisation to pursue the business of investment intermediary and for facilitation of the supervision on unconsolidated and consolidated basis, especially with regard to the capital adequacy requirements, administrative and accounting procedures and internal-control mechanisms;
2. for control over the operation of the trading venues;
3. in the applying of coercive administrative measures and imposition of administrative sanctions;
4. in administrative and court appeals against warrants of the Commission and the deputy chairman, as well as against warrants of the Bulgarian National Bank under Art. 16 para 2 and Art. 103 para 8 of the Law on Credit Institutions;
5. in the extra-judicial procedures for settlement of consumer claims concerning the investment services and activities, provided to investment intermediaries.

Art. 109. (1) Regardless of the provisions of Art. 107 and 108 of this Act and Art. 24 and 25 of the Financial Supervision Commission Act (FSCA), the Commission shall provide to the central banks, the European System of Central Banks and the European Central Bank, in their capacity of authorities exercising payment supervision and, where appropriate, to other public authorities responsible for overseeing payment and settlement systems, information needed for the performance of their tasks.

(2) The Commission may request from the authorities under para 1 to provide it with the information needed for the performance of its activity.

Art. 110. (1) The Commission may refuse assistance in the carrying out of on-the-spot verification or investigation as provided for in Art. 103 para 3 and for the supply of the information as provided for in Art. 107 para 2, Art. 108 and Art. 109, where:

1. the carrying out of on-the-spot verification, or investigation and the supply of information might adversely affect the sovereignty, security or public policy of the Republic of Bulgaria;
2. proceedings have already been initiated in respect of the same actions and the same persons for whom assistance has been requested, before judicial authorities in the Republic of Bulgaria;
3. in respect of the same persons and the same actions in relation to whom an assistance has been requested, final enforceable judgement has already been delivered in the Republic of Bulgaria.

(2) In the cases under para 1 the Commission shall notify the authority which has requested assistance, providing to it detailed information on the reasons for the refusal.

Art. 111. (1) The Commission shall carry out consultations with the relevant competent authorities of another Member State prior to taking a decision on the application, when the applicant is:

1. a subsidiary of another investment intermediary, insurer or credit institution authorized to pursue business by the competent authorities of another Member State;

2. a subsidiary of a parent undertaking of another investment intermediary, insurer or credit institution authorized to pursue business by the competent authorities of another Member State;

3. a person controlled by the same natural or legal person as controls an investment intermediary, insurer or credit institution, that has been authorized to pursue business by the competent authority of another Member State;

(2) The Commission shall conduct consultations with the Bulgarian National Bank before pronouncing on the application, when the applicant is:

1. a subsidiary of a credit institution, that has obtained an authorization to pursue business under the Law on Credit Institutions;

2. a subsidiary of a parent undertaking of a credit institution, that has obtained an authorization to pursue business under the Law on Credit Institutions;

3. a person controlled by a natural or legal person, that controls a credit institution, which has obtained an authorization to pursue business under the Law on Credit Institutions;

(3) (Am. – SG, iss. 24 in 2009, in effect as of 31 March, 2009) The Commission shall consult the relevant competent authorities under para 1 and para 2 also when assessing the reputation and the experience of the persons who will represent and manage the investment intermediary, if they are involved also in the management of another entity of the same group.

(4) (New – SG, iss. 24 in 2009, in effect as of 31 March, 2009) The deputy chairperson shall carry out preliminary consultations and cooperate with the relevant competent authority, if the person under Art. 26 and 26a is:

1. a credit institution, insurer, reinsurer, investment intermediary or management company, licensed in other Member State, or a credit institution, insurer or reinsurer licensed in the Republic of Bulgaria;

2. a parent company of a credit institution, insurer, reinsurer, investment intermediary or management company licensed in other Member State, or a credit institution, insurer or reinsurer licensed in the Republic of Bulgaria;

3. a natural person or legal entity that controls a credit institution, insurer, reinsurer, investment intermediary or management company licensed in other Member State, or a credit institution, insurer or reinsurer licensed in the Republic of Bulgaria.

(5) (Previous para 4 – SG, iss. 24 in 2009, in effect as of 31 March, 2009) The Commission shall carry out consultations with the relevant competent authority from a Member State in connection with the issue of authorization to pursue business as investment intermediary to an entity which is:

1. a subsidiary of an investment intermediary, that has obtained a license to pursue business under this Act, or an insurer that has received a license to pursue business under the Insurance Code;

2. a subsidiary of the parent undertaking of an investment intermediary, that has obtained a license to pursue business under this Act, or an insurer that has obtained a license to pursue business under the Insurance Code;

3. an entity controlled by a natural or legal person, who controls an investment intermediary that has obtained a license to pursue business under this Act, or an insurer that has obtained a license to pursue business under the Insurance Code;

(6) (Previous para 5, am. – SG, iss. 24 in 2009, in effect as of 31 March, 2009) The Commission shall consult the relevant competent authority from a Member State when assessing the reputation and experience of persons who will represent and manage the investment intermediary, if they are also involved in the management of an investment intermediary, which has obtained a license to pursue business under this Act.

(7) (New – SG, iss. 24 in 2009, in effect as of 31 March, 2009) In case of acquisition of a qualifying holding in an investment intermediary, or in a credit institution licensed in a Member State, the deputy chairperson shall provide in time, on request of the relevant competent authority, any information about an investment intermediary that has obtained a license to carry out activity according this Act, which is material or has relation to making assessment of the person acquiring a qualifying holding. The deputy chairperson shall provide on his/her initiative the relevant competent authority with the material information of carrying out the assessment

Art. 112. (1) The Commission may, for statistical purposes, require the investment intermediaries from a Member State, which carry out activities on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria through a branch, to submit periodical reports with form and contents, as laid down in an ordinance.

(2) In discharging its functions the Commission shall require the investment intermediaries from a Member State, which carry out activities on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria through a branch, to provide the information necessary for the exercising of supervision over compliance with their obligations under Art. 68, which obligations may not be more stringent than those provided for the investment intermediaries that have obtained a license to pursue business under this Act.

Art. 113. (1) Where the deputy chairman has clear and demonstrable grounds for believing that an investment intermediary from a Member State, which carries out activities through a branch or under the freedom to provide services on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria, is in breach of the provisions of Directive 2004/39/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council, which do not confer powers to the Commission, respectively the deputy chairman to exercise supervision, it shall notify of it the competent authority of the home Member State.

(2) If, despite the measures taken by the competent authority of the home Member State, or because such measures prove inadequate or inappropriate and the investment intermediary persists in acting in a manner prejudicial to the investor interests or to the orderly functioning of the capital markets on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria, the deputy chairman may, after informing the competent authority of the home Member State, take the appropriate measures needed in order to protect investors and for the proper functioning of the capital markets, and if necessary, also prohibit the investment intermediary from pursuing business on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria. The Commission shall inform without delay the European Commission of the measures taken.

Art. 114. (1) Where the deputy chairman ascertains that an investment intermediary from a Member State, which carries out activities through a branch on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria, is in breach of the provisions of Art. 24 para 1 item 4 and para 4, 7 and 8, Art. 27, 28, 30, 38 and Division III of Chapter Three, as well as the acts of their implementation, the deputy chairman shall direct in writing to put an end of and remove within certain term the admitted breaches and the harmful consequences thereof.

(2) If the investment intermediary fails to execute the direction under para 1, the deputy chairman shall take all appropriate measures for putting an end of the breaches and shall communicate the nature of those measures to the competent authorities of the home Member State.

(3) If, despite the measures taken under para 2, the investment intermediary persists with the breach referred to in paragraph 1, the Commission, or the deputy chairman may, after informing the competent authority of the home Member State, take appropriate measures to prevent the offence or penalise the offender and, in so far as necessary, to prohibit the investment intermediary from pursuing business on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria. The Commission shall forthwith inform the European Commission of the measures taken.

Art. 115. (1) Where the deputy chairman has clear and demonstrable grounds for believing that a regulated market or multilateral trading facility (MTF) from a Member State is in breach of the provisions of Directive 2004/39/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council, it shall notify of it the competent authority of the home Member State.

(2) If, despite the measures taken by the competent authority of the home Member State, or because such measures prove inadequate or inappropriate, and the said regulated market or the MTF persists in acting in a manner that is prejudicial to the investor interests or the orderly functioning of the capital markets on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria, the deputy chairman may, after informing the competent authority of the home Member State, take all the appropriate measures needed in order to protect investors and ensure the proper functioning of the capital markets, and if needed, also to prohibit the regulated market or the multilateral trading facility (MTF) from pursuing business on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria. The Commission shall inform without delay the European Commission about the measures taken under sentence one.

Art. 116. Any measures adopted by the Commission or the deputy chairman under Art. 113, 114 and 115 involving sanctions or restrictions on the activities of an investment intermediary or of a regulated market shall be reasoned in writing and communicated to the investment intermediary or to the regulated market concerned.

Division III

Provision of Information to the European Commission

Art. 117. (1) The Commission shall inform the European Commission of any substantial difficulties arisen for investment intermediaries, to which the Republic of Bulgaria is a home Member State, in their establishment, or in the performance of the services and activities under Art. 5 para 2 and 3 in a third country.

(2) On request of the European Commission, the Commission shall restrict or suspend for a period of three months the issue of authorizations to pursue business on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria by an investment intermediary from a third country, as well as the procedures in relation to the acquisition of holding by a parent undertaking, which is regulated by the legislation of such third country. By decision of the Council of the European Union this period may be extended.

(3) Paragraph 2 shall not apply with regard to a subsidiary of an investment intermediary, that has obtained an authorization to pursue business within the European Union, or a subsidiary of such subsidiary.

(4) On request of the European Union, in cases when a third country does not ensure to investment intermediaries from a Member State, the pursuance of business in market conditions, equal to those which the acquis communautaire guarantees to the investment intermediaries from that third country, or when a third country does not provide a regime of national treatment when business is pursued on its territory by investment intermediaries from a Member State, the Commission shall inform it of any filed:

1. application for the issue of a license to an investment intermediary, which is direct or indirect subsidiary of a parent undertakings, which is regulated by the legislation of that third country;

2. notification by a parent undertaking, which is regulated by the legislation of that third country and intends to acquire holding in an investment intermediary for which the Republic of Bulgaria is a home Member State, as a result of which the investment intermediary will become a subsidiary of that parent undertaking.

(5) The notification under para 4 shall be terminated after the achieving of an agreement between the European Union and the third country for the provision by the third country to investment intermediaries from the European Community conditions for pursuing their business equivalent to those which acquis communautaire guarantees to the investment intermediaries from that third country, for the providing of a regime of national treatment or after the expiration of the term under para 2.

TITLE FOUR

COERCIVE ADMINISTRATIVE MEASURES AND ADMINISTRATIVE LIABILITY

Chapter Seven

COERCIVE ADMINISTRATIVE MEASURES

Art. 118. (1) When it establishes that an investment intermediary or regulated market, their employees, persons performing managerial functions under a contract, persons entering into transactions for the account of an intermediary, as well as persons possessing qualifying holding, have carried out or carry out activities in contravention of this Act, its implementing instruments, the rules or other internal instruments of the regulated markets of financial instruments approved by the deputy chairman, decisions of the Commission or the deputy chairman, as well as where the exercising of control activity by the Commission or the deputy chairman is prevented or the interests of investors are jeopardized, the Commission, respectively the deputy chairman may:

1. obligate them to take specific measures needed to prevent and remove the offenses, the harmful effects thereof or the jeopardy to investor interests, within a time limit set by the Commission;
2. convene, with a specified agenda, a general assembly and/or schedule a meeting of the governing or supervisory bodies of the supervised persons in view of passing resolutions on the measures to be taken;
3. inform the public of any activities that jeopardize investors' interests;
4. suspend the trading with certain financial instruments;
5. order in writing a supervised person to dismiss one or more persons authorized to manage and represent the corresponding person and divest such person of his managerial and representation rights until his dismissal;
6. appoint quaestors in the cases provided for in this Act;

7. appoint a registered auditor who should conduct a financial or other audit of a supervised person, in accordance with requirements set by the deputy chairman;

8. demand distraint upon property;

9. remove financial instruments from trading on a regulated market or other trading system.

(2). Where it establishes that a bank carries out its activities in contravention of this Act or of its implementing instruments, the deputy chairman may apply the measures under para. 1 items 1, and propose to the Bulgarian National Bank to apply the measures under Art.103, para. 2 of the Law on Credit Institutions. The Bulgarian National Bank must communicate its decision to the deputy chairman within one month from receiving the proposal of the deputy chairman.

(3) The deputy chairman may propose to the Bulgarian National Bank to withdraw a bank's license only if the corresponding entity systematically violates the provisions of this Act or its implementing instruments.

(4) On request from the Commission, respectively the deputy chairman, the Registry Agency shall enter the circumstances, respectively shall announce the acts under para. (1) in the commercial register.

Art. 119. (1) The procedure of applying coercive administrative measures shall start on the initiative of the deputy chairman, and in the cases under Art. 118, para 1, item 5 and 6 - on the Commission's initiative.

(2) The notifications and communications in the procedure under para. 1 may also be made via registered mail with delivery receipt, via telegram, over the phone, telex or fax. Notifications and communications by registered mail with delivery receipt or telegram are verified by a notice of their delivery, over the phone - in writing by the official who delivered them, and those by telex or fax - by written confirmation for sent message.

(3) If the notifications and communications in the procedure under para. (1) are not received on the address, telephone, telex or fax specified by the persons or entered in the respective register under Art. 30, para. 1 of the Financial Supervision Commission Act, they shall be considered sent with their posting on specially indicated for the purpose place in the Commission's building. This circumstance shall be ascertained by a report, drawn up by officials appointed by an order of the deputy chairman.

(4) The coercive administrative measures under Art. 118, para 1, item 1 - 4, and 7 shall be applied by a written reasoned decision of the deputy chairman, and the coercive administrative measures under Art. 118, para 1, item 5 and 6 - by a written reasoned decision of the Commission, which shall be communicated to the concerned person within 7 days as of its pronouncement.

Art. 120. The decision to apply a coercive administrative measure shall be subject to immediate enforcement, regardless of whether it has been appealed against.

Art. 121. Insofar as no special rules have been provided for in this Chapter, the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Code shall apply.

Chapter Eight QUAESTOR

Art. 122. (1) The Commission may appoint one or several quaestors:

1. of a regulated market, in the case of Art. 84, para. (2);

2. of an investment intermediary:

a) by adopting a resolution to apply a measure under Art. 118, para. 1, items 1 or 5 for a period of up to 3 months; or

b) in case of withdrawal of the license to pursue business – until the court appoints a liquidator or trustee, respectively.

(2) Where upon the expiration of the three-month term under para. 1, item 2, letter “a” the intermediary’s license to pursue business is not withdrawn, the powers of the quaestor shall be discontinued and the rights of the company’s bodies shall be restored.

(3) The Commission may at any time terminate the powers of the quaestor and appoint another one in his place. This act shall not be subject to appeal.

Art. 123. (1) The quaestor must be a natural person.

(2) A quaestor must satisfy the conditions of Art. 11, para. (1), items 1-4, 6-10, and not be:

1. the spouse, a relative in the direct or collateral line up to the sixth degree or by affinity up to the third degree to a member of a governing body of the person under Art. 122, para. 1 whose powers are terminated with the act of appointment of the quaestor;

2. with the person under Art. 122, para. 1 or with his debtor in relations which give good reasons to doubt the quaestor’s impartiality.

(3) The quaestor shall state in writing to the Commission the circumstances under para. 2. He must forthwith notify the Commission of any change in those circumstances.

Art. 124. (1) After issuing the act of appointment of a quaestor, the Commission shall forthwith serve it on the person under Art. 122, para. (1) and shall publish a notice in at least one central daily newspaper.

(2) With the appointment of a quaestor all powers of the supervisory and the managing board, or the board of directors of the person under Art. 122, para. 1, shall be terminated and shall be exercised by the quaestor, so far as the act of his appointment does not envisage any restrictions. The quaestor shall take all necessary measures to protect investor interests.

(3) After the quaestor’s appointment, the general shareholders meeting may only be convened by the quaestor and take a decision on the announced by him agenda.

(4) Acts and transactions carried out by third parties in the name of and for the account of the person under Art. 122, para. 1 without a preliminary authorization by the quaestor, shall be null and void.

(5) If two or more quaestors have been appointed, they shall take decisions unanimously and shall exercise their powers jointly, unless the Commission decides otherwise.

(6) The Commission may issue binding prescriptions to the quaestors in relation to their activities.

(7) The quaestor shall report about his activities only to the Commission and, upon its request, he shall forthwith submit a report on his activities.

Art. 125. (1) The quaestor shall have unrestricted access to and control over the offices of the person under Art. 122, para. (1), the accounting and other documents and its property.

(2) Upon the quaestor’s request, the Public Prosecution and the authorities of the Ministry of the Interior must render assistance for the exercise of his powers under para. 1.

Art. 126. (1) The quaestor shall exercise his powers with due diligence. He shall only be liable for damages, which he has caused intentionally or with gross negligence.

(2) All officials of the person under Art. 122, para. 1 must assist the quaestor in the exercise of his powers.

(3) The quaestor shall receive for his work remuneration for the account of the person under Art. 122, para. (1), which shall be determined by the Commission.

Art. 100p. (1) The provisions of Art. 100m and Art. 100n shall not apply to:

1. The Republic of Bulgaria, regional or local authorities in the Republic of Bulgaria, public international organizations, a member of which is at least one Member State, the European Central Bank, Bulgarian National Bank and the central banks of the other Member States, regardless of whether issuers of equities or other securities;

2. issuers which issue only debt securities, admitted to trading on a regulated market, having a nominal value of not less than the BGN equivalence of 50 000 EURO, or in cases of debt securities denominated in foreign exchange, other than euro, having a nominal value at the date of their issue of not less than the BGN equivalence of 50 000 euro.

(2) The provisions of Art. 100n shall not apply to banks whose shares are not admitted to trading on a regulated market and which have issued only debt securities issued on a continuous or regular basis by them, provided that:

1. the total nominal value of the debt securities is less than the BGN equivalence of 100 000 000 euro;

2. they have not published a prospectus.

Art. 100r. (1) The issuer of securities, other than shares, shall immediately disclose to the public the changes in the rights of the owners of securities other than shares, including the changes in the time-limits and conditions concerning these securities, which could indirectly affect those rights, which are a result of alteration in the conditions of the loan and the interest rate.

(2) The issuer of securities shall immediately disclose to the public the information about the issue of a new issue of debt securities and all related guarantees and collateral. This requirement shall not apply to international institutions or other similar organizations, a member of which is at least one Member State.

Art. 100s. (1) An issuer, or the person that has applied without the issuer's consent for the admission of the securities to trading on a regulated market, shall disclose the regulated information simultaneously to the Commission and to the public. An issuer which has made only public offering of securities must disclose the information under sentence one first on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria.

(2) Paragraph 1 shall also apply to issuers whose securities have been admitted to trading on a regulated market in the Republic of Bulgaria and have not been admitted to trading on a regulated market of the home Member State. In such case the regulated information must satisfy the minimum requirements of Directive 2004/109/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council for harmonization of the requirements to transparency in respect to information on the issuers, whose securities have been admitted to trading on a regulated market and amending Directive 2001/34/EC.

(3) The regulated information shall be disclosed to the public in a manner which ensures that it will reach the widest possible circle of persons, simultaneously and in a manner that does not discriminate them. The issuer must use a news agency or another media, which may ensure the efficient dissemination of the regulated information to the public in all Member States. The requirements to the form and content of the regulated information, as well as the conditions, ways and procedure of its disclosure shall be laid down in an ordinance.

(4) The issuer, or the person that has asked for admission of the securities to trading on a regulated market, may not collect fees from investors for access to the regulated information.

Art. 100t. (1) The Commission shall create and maintain a centralized data base for storage of the regulated information, received from the issuers whose securities have been admitted to trading on a regulated market and whose home Member State is the Republic of Bulgaria.

(2) The information under para 1 is public and the access to it shall be free of charge.

(3) The establishment and maintenance of the centralized data base for storage of the regulated information, as well as the requirements to safety of the information, to reliability of its sources, to the time, procedure and manner for providing an access to it, shall be laid down in an ordinance.

Art. 100u. (1) Where the securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market only in the Republic of Bulgaria and the Republic of Bulgaria is the home Member State, the regulated information shall be disclosed in the Bulgarian language. When the securities are proposed to the public on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria, the regulated information shall be disclosed in the Bulgarian language.

(2) Where the securities have been admitted to trading on a regulated market simultaneously in one or more Member States, including in the Republic of Bulgaria, and the Republic of Bulgaria is the home Member State, the regulated information shall be disclosed in the Bulgarian language and in a language, accepted by the competent authority of these states, or in a language that is customary in the field of the international finances, at the issuer's choice.

(3) Where the securities have been admitted to trading on a regulated market simultaneously in one or more Member States, with the exception of the Republic of Bulgaria, and the Republic of Bulgaria is the home Member State, the regulated information shall be disclosed in a language, accepted by the competent authorities of these Member States, or in a language that is customary in the field of the international finances, at the issuer's choice. For the purposes of realization of the supervisory functions of the Commission, the information shall also be disclosed in the Bulgarian language or in English language, at the issuer's choice.

(4) When the securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market without the issuer's consent, the requirements under para 1-3 shall apply to the person that applied for admission of the securities to trading on a regulated market.

(5) In cases other than those under para 1-4, where securities, having a unit nominal value of not less than the BGN equivalence of 50 000 EURO, or in cases of debt securities denominated in foreign currency, other than euro, having a nominal value at the date of their issue of not less than the BGN equivalence of 50 000 euro, have been admitted to trading on a regulated market in one or more Member States, the regulated information shall be disclosed in a language, accepted by the home and host Member States, or in a language accepted as customary in the field of international finances, at the choice of the issuer or of the person, that applied for admission of the securities to trading on a regulated market.
